ENROLLMENTS TO OPEN FOR MUSEUM PROGRAMS

Summer programs for young people at the Cleveland Museum of Art resume this year after a drastic curtailment in 1970 and 1969 occasioned by construction of the new Education Wing.

Courses range over a wide variety of subjects: there are two film-making programs, puppet and marionette classes, photography and creative writing offerings. The majority of courses, however, are related directly to the fine arts as expressed in the Museum's collections.

Registration for summer classes will be held on June 2, 3, and 4 from 2:00 to 4:30 and on June 5 from 10:00 to 3:00. Parents must register in person at the Museum and children need not be present. Classes are limited in size and pupils will be accepted in order of registration. The class fee for members is $4.00 or $8.00 for non-members. The fee for film-making classes is $6.00 for members or $10.00 for non-members. All courses begin the week of June 20.

Activities for young people include:

Young Artists Inside and Out: Painting, drawing, and collage done out-of-doors and in the Museum studio. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 6-12. Tuesdays through Fridays, 10:00-12:00.

Workers in Clay: A fundamental pottery class beginning with the simplest techniques and relating working in clay to the historical development of pottery. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 6 and 7. Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10:00-12:00.

Puppet Workshop: Open to members' and non-members' children ages 6 and 7. Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1:30-3:30.

Marionette Workshop: Open to members' and non-members' children ages 10-12. Wednesdays and Fridays, 1:30-3:30.

Greek Theater: The play Medea by Euripides will be the source for the study of stage movements, poetry, costuming and the history of the Greek theatre. The students will make masks and produce a portion of the drama. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 14-16. Tuesdays through Fridays, 1:30-3:30.

Relating the Arts: The relationships existing among painting, sculpture, music, poetry, drama, architecture, and the dance will be explored. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 14-16. Wednesdays, 1:30-3:30.

Painting with Yarn and Cloth: Collage, wall-hangings and rug techniques will be experimented. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 10-12. Wednesdays and Fridays, 10:00-12:00.

Mini Masters: A painting class held out-of-doors and in the studio. Open to members' and non-members' children 5 years of age. Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10:00-12:00.

Environmental Art: The creation of an art-oriented environment using light, sound and visual techniques. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 8-13. Tuesdays and Thursdays, ages 8-10; Wednesdays and Fridays, ages 11-13. 10:00-12:00.

Photography Workshop: An introduction emphasizing basic composition, design and subject matter. Students will supply their own cameras and film, preferably 35 mm. cameras. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 10-15. Tuesdays and Thursdays, ages 10-12; Wednesdays and Fridays, ages 13-15. 10:00-12:00.

Dance Drama: The production of an Indian dance drama including masks and costumes. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 9-11. Tuesdays through Fridays, 1:30-3:30.

Printmaking: Basic introduction of techniques. Open to members' and non-members children ages 12-14. Tuesdays through Thursdays, 1:30-3:30.

Creative Writing: Inspired by works of art from the collection, children will create stories, poems and myths. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 9-11. Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1:30-3:30.

Film-Making in the Museum Galleries: Various techniques of film-making will be explored. Open to members' and non-members' children ages 14-16. Wednesdays and Fridays, 1:30-3:30.

The following courses are limited to members' children:

Film-Making with Helen Henley: The study and production of animated films. Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10:00-12:00, ages 6-9.

Crafts Workshop: Experience in different crafts as related to the Museum collections. Tuesdays and Thursdays, ages 6 and 7; Wednesdays and Fridays, ages 8 and 9. 1:30-3:30.
